AUMA increased by 3% to £568.9bn (31 Dec 2018: £551.5bn) helped by positive market movements that were partly offset by the strength of Sterling. Gross inflows were boosted by £3.5bn of assets from Virgin Money, with whom we are launching a joint venture¹. Net outflows continued to be concentrated in a small number of strategies. AUMA also benefited from the acquisition of Orion Partners, an Asia-based real estate manager, which added assets of £0.7bn.
