This is a form authorised by the Irish Revenue Commissioners. It may be subject to inspection by the Irish Revenue Commissioners. It is an offence under Irish law to make a false declaration.

This declaration must be signed by policyholders who are neither resident nor ordinarily resident in Ireland or by executors / personal representatives signing on behalf of deceased persons. Where the policyholder is a company, the declaration must be signed by the company secretary or such other authorised officer. It may also be signed by a person who holds power of attorney from the policyholder. A copy of the power of attorney should be furnished with this declaration.

Policyholder

In cases where the bond is to be held on trust, either by creating a trust when opening the bond, or by an existing trust, the policyholder is deemed to be the settlor(s) of the trust. If the settlor is deceased the declaration should be signed by their personal representative. In all other cases (including instances where the bond is assigned as security for a loan), the bond owner will be the policyholder.

Residence Definitions

Residence – Individual

An individual will be regarded as being resident in Ireland for a tax year if she/he:

1. Spends 183 days or more in Ireland in that tax year; or
2. Has a combined presence of 280 days in Ireland, taking into account the number of days spent in Ireland in that tax year together with the number of days spent in Ireland in the preceding year.

Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in Ireland will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Up to 31 December 2008, presence in Ireland for a day means the personal presence of an individual at the end of the day (midnight). From 1 January 2009, presence in Ireland for a day means the personal presence of an individual at any time during the day.

Ordinary Residence – Individual

The term "ordinary residence" as distinct from "residence" relates to a person's normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in Ireland for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in Ireland ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which s/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in Ireland in 2014 and departs from Ireland in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year in 2017.

Residence – Company

Prior to Finance Act 2014, company residence was determined with regard to the long established common law rules based on central management and control. These rules were significantly revised in Finance Act 2014 to provide that a company incorporated in Ireland will be regarded as resident for tax purposes in Ireland, unless it is treated as resident in a treaty partner country by virtue of a double taxation treaty. While the common law rule based on central management and control remains in place, it is subject to the statutory rule for determining company residence based on incorporation in Ireland set out in the revised section 23A TCA 1997.

The new incorporation rule for determining the tax residence of a company incorporated in Ireland will apply to companies incorporated on or after 1 January 2015.
