Important

This trust is only suitable if you (the Settlor(s)), your Trustees and all of your Beneficiaries are resident in the UK and intend to remain resident in the UK. If you and they are not all resident in the UK at any time, there could be additional tax consequences. Many different factors determine whether a person is resident in the UK so you should speak to your adviser if you are unsure about this.

Please ensure you have:

- completed Parts A to G
- considered the restricted liability of the Trustees in clause 10
- consulted your legal, tax or financial adviser before signing this deed
- signed on page 9 and also that all Trustees have signed on page 10 (and if applicable page 11)

Standard Life has drafted this trust deed with due care and attention to reflect the law at March 2023. It cannot accept any responsibility for loss, damage or other claims which may arise from the use of this trust or the way in which you complete it. Standard Life cannot perform the function of a legal or tax adviser or guarantee that this trust will meet all of your specific requirements. You are strongly recommended to consult your own professional advisers. Please ensure that the money is from a bank account in the name(s) of the Settlor(s) detailed at Part B. If there is only one Settlor this should be from a sole account in their name not a joint account. There may be tax implications if the money comes from a bank account in a different name or a joint account where there is only one Settlor.

Please ensure the trust is registered on HMRC's Trust Registration Service, unless exempt. In addition, if the trust holds a Standard Life International Bond, it must be registered on the Irish Revenue's Central Registration of Beneficial Ownership of Trusts (CRBOT). This is being updated and you or your adviser should check on the Irish Revenue's website whether the service is currently available. If your trust cannot be registered now, please send us evidence of your trust's CRBOT registration as soon as this is possible.
